ANTI-IRISH and ANTI-JEWISH LITERATURE

Sir:

The following report is submitted for your information.

HARVEY N. BAKER, who resides at 5222 Belmont, TA6-1564, brought a pamphlet, which he had received in the mail, to this office. This literature was in an envelope postmarked Los Angeles, Calif., February 11, 1964, with a return name and address of PROFESSOR WISDOM, P.O. Box 24, Pemberville, Ohio. It was addressed to SUBJECT at 1011 Beachview Dr., which was his address from February to July in 1963.

SUBJECT was concerned about this pamphlet because of its theme, which is anti-Irish and anti-Jewish. He did not know how his name and address got on the mailing list for this type of literature. SUBJECT has a responsible job with WESTERN UNION in Dallas as a wire and repeater technician, and he is afraid he might lose his job if an investigation is made on this PROFESSOR WISDOM and his name is found on the mailing list.

This pamphlet is entitled, "HOMO SAPIENS VS IRISH", and in smaller letters the words, "THE SIMIAN USURPATION OF THE PRESIDENCY". Stamped on the cover of this literature in blue ink are the words, "IN MEMORY OF SOME GOOD MARKSMANSHIP, AND OF A COURAGEOUS VICTIM OF THE JEWISH-IRISH UNDERWORLD", which evidently refer to the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY and the subsequent slaying of LEE HARVEY OSWALD by JACK RUBY. The envelope and pamphlet received by SUBJECT are attached to the original of this report.

Respectfully submitted,

F. A. Hellinghausen
